Aims of the Association

- a. The direct provision of free legal services to individuals and groups, in particular the provision of such services to vulnerable and disadvantaged individuals and groups.
- b. To promote within the community of the Gold Coast an understanding that legal advice, information and referral is available to all persons irrespective of race, colour or creed and financial circumstances.
- c. To complement and assist, within the capabilities of the Association, all other legal, social and welfare services in the community at large.
- d. To lobby Government for better provision of legal services into the community at large.
- e. To lobby Government for changes to the law that the Association considers desirable.
- f. To make available to the individual accurate legal advice and information and provide a confidential service on many personal problems that arise in daily life.
- g. If unable to assist, to direct people seeking assistance to the most appropriate organisation and when requested, to make necessary arrangements to obtain the help and guidance sought.
- h. To provide a comprehensive source of information including leaflets, factsheets, brochures and necessary forms, on a variety of legal matters within the community.
- i. To stimulate, or assist in stimulation, action within the community for the improvement of social welfare services
